

Learn Finnish Adventure - Introductory Level Script

Version 1.0, 19.08.2024

Scene 1: Arrival at Helsinki Airport

"The player (an international student) arrives at Helsinki airport. The environment is bustling, and the player is unsure of where to go next."

Main Player: "I finally made it to Finland, but... where do I go from here?"

"The camera shows the busy terminal. The player (first-person perspective) starts looking around, trying to find signs or information."

Scene 2: Interaction with the Ice Hockey Player

"The player is approached by a friendly ice hockey player who notices we are lost."

Ice Hockey Player: "[Hi! Do you need help?] in Finnish" (Hi! Do you need help?)

Note: Since the player doesn't speak or understand Finnish, the text appears on the screen, but the player doesn't know what it means.

Player's Confused Response :

- Text: The player doesn't understand the words and looks confused.
- Dialogue Options (in English) :
 1. "I'm sorry, I don't understand."
 2. "Do you speak English ?"
- Player chooses an option.

Ice Hockey Player's Response :

- If the player chooses "I'm sorry, I don't understand":
- Ice Hockey Player (Switches to English): "No worries! I can help. You're looking for the train station?"

Co-funded by
the European Union

- If the player chooses "Do you speak English?":
- Ice Hockey Player (Switches to English): "Yes, I do! Let me help you find the train station."

Continued Interaction :

- Ice Hockey Player: "Follow me, I'll show you the way. By the way, where are you from?"
- Player's Response (in English): "I'm from [Country]."

Ice Hockey Player's Closing Dialogue:

- Text: "Finland is a great country. You'll love it here. The train station is just ahead welcome to Finland!"

Scene 3: Taking the Train

"The player successfully finds the train station and boards the train to Kokkola. On the train, they have an interaction with the Train Conductor, but they still don't understand any Finnish."

Train Conductor's Dialogue (in Finnish) :

- Text: "[Your ticket, please.] in Finnish" (Your ticket, please.)
- Note: The player sees the Finnish text but doesn't understand it. They only know that the conductor is talking to them.

Player's Confused Reaction :

- Text: The player hesitates, unsure of what the conductor said. The game provides an option:
- Dialogue Options (in English) :
 1. "I'm sorry, I don't understand."
 2. "Is this my ticket ?"

Co-funded by
the European Union

Train Conductor's Reaction:

- If the player chooses "I'm sorry, I don't understand":
- Train Conductor (Realizing the confusion, switches to English): "Ah, no problem! Your ticket, please."
- If the player chooses "Is this my ticket?":
- Train Conductor (In English): "Yes, that's it! Please hand it over."

Player's Action :

- Text: "The player hands over the ticket, still feeling unsure but relieved that the conductor switched to English."

Train Conductor's Farewell (in Finnish, with no understanding by the player):

- Text: "[You're headed to Kokkola, good choice] in Finnish" (You're headed to Kokkola, good choice.)
- Player's Thoughts (Italicized): "I really need to learn some Finnish... I didn't catch a word of that."

Conductor's Closing Dialogue (in Finnish, with no understanding by the player):

- Text: "[Hop in, enjoy your journey!]in Finnish " (Hop in, enjoy your journey!)
- Player's Thoughts (Italicized): "I hope I'm on the right train!"

Scene 4: Arrival in Kokkola

"The train arrives at Kokkola station. The player is greeted by their tutor, who will be their main guide throughout the game."

Tutor's Initial Dialogue (in Finnish) :

Co-funded by
the European Union

- Text: "[Hi, I'm your tutor. Welcome to Kokkola!] in Finnish" (Hi, I'm your tutor. Welcome to Kokkola!)
- Note: The player doesn't understand this greeting and looks confused.

Tutor's Friendly Realization and Joke:

- Tutor (Laughing): "I can see that didn't make much sense to you! Don't worry, we'll start with the basics."
- Tutor (Switches to English): "I just said, 'Hi, I'm your tutor. Welcome to Kokkola!' Let's learn that together, shall we?"

First Finnish Lesson :

- Tutor (Repeating Slowly): "[Hi, I'm your tutor. Welcome to Kokkola!] in Finnish" (Hi, I'm your tutor. Welcome to Kokkola!)
- Player (Repeats after the Tutor): "(We repeat the same sentence slowly)"

Tutor's Encouragement :

- Tutor: "Great job! See? You've already learned your first words in Finnish. Let's go, the adventure is just beginning."

Scene End :

- Text: "The Tutor leads the player out of the station, and the screen fades to black, setting the stage for the educational journey ahead."

Co-funded by the European Union

